LANGUAGE ARTS MISSION

You have just received your mission papers. As Admiral of a Star Fleet, your mission is to select a planet within our solar system and build a space colony.

Your first order of business is to select and research your planet. Use the resources available at the media center, in the textbook and on the Internet.

After research and selection of your planet, you will write an essay to the High Commander (teacher) and describe what life in your space colony will be like.

The paper should be one to three pages with correct spelling and punctuation.
