ISU Beekeeping Club
Minutes for the meeting of September 14, 2015
Moulton Hall Room 210

Call to Order:
The meeting was called to order by President Hodges at 7:45 pm. In attendance were the following:

Introductions:
Officers and club beekeepers were introduced during this time.

Program:
Club member, Kim Brown, gave a talk about her First Year of Beekeeping.

Officer Reports:
• Secretary’s Report: No report.
• Treasurer’s Report: The financial report was read by Treasurer Alec Baran.

Business:
• It was decided to have a door prize of a hive. Carl offered selling one of his new hives at cost to the club. This was voted and approved.
  o There was a small discussion about having other prizes as well and reaching out for donations from beekeeping companies.
• The cost of 40 dollars for family with an extra 10 dollars per person was decided for the cost of the workshop. The 10 dollars is to cover the cost of lunch and to make sure that material costs can be covered for the field day as well. This was voted upon and approved.
• It was decided to have a Facebook/email officer vote on ordering bees for the spring. We wanted to make sure that we got a good deal on good bees.
  o The point of discussing the contracts with club beekeepers came up at this point to discuss this problem in the future.
• There needs to be a printed out version of the contract between the club and club beekeepers to review what the deal is.
• To help Patti Koranda run the workshop, she will need a copy of the schedule and will be able to start contacting people and making sure everything will be in line. She said she would meet with Carl to discuss the workshop.
  o Ken agreed on purchasing the food.
  o The topic of honey products to eat was brought up as a discussion for the workshop.

Upcoming Events:
• Next ISUBC Meeting: October 26
• ISUBC Workshop- November 7

Adjournment:
The meeting was adjourned at 9:05 pm.
Submitted Pro-tem,

President Mark Hodges
